JACK SCHOOL PIE SOCIAL A SUCCESS

The rain never bothers wide-awake and rustling people when it comes to plans that have been made for a "pie social." The Jack school house, one mile south and one mile east was well filled Thursday evening. The pupils of the school rendered a Washington program. The room was well decorated with large flags and cedar. The Misses Eiter and Mr. Coping added selections to the program, which were appreciated.

Thirty-two of the school children responded and all did their part well. The order was good and every number was plainly heard all over the room.

Fred Cooper took his bus and escorted the following Anadarko ladies to hear the program and to eat "pie." Mesdames Rogers, Vedder, Boake, Hutchins, Blankenship, Cooper, Boyle, Steward, Bullen and Miss Area.

Mr. Rector of Anadarko, auctioned the pies, which brought $7.95.

The Jack School highly appreciates the good turn out on such a bad night.

GOTEBO GIRLS TO PLAY

Word was received Thursday evening that owing to the sickness of two members of the girl's basket ball team, it will be impossible for them to come for the game Saturday night. The boys team will be here however, and will play as scheduled.

In order to not disappoint the fans, the managers got into communication with other teams. It was finally arranged that the girls teams from Gotebo should come. This is the only team that has been able to stand any chance with the local girls this season. Early in the season the Anadarko girls went to Gotebo and received a defeat which they have been wanting to avenge ever since. They have improved several hundred per cent since that time and will no doubt be able to "get even."

ADMITS 'MURDER OF WIFE

El Reno, Okla., Feb. 19.—Clyde E. Doss, 32 years old pleaded guilty to killing his wife here today and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Mrs. Doss was shot as she sat reading her Bible in her home here last Monday night. Doss is said to have been infatuated with another woman. An hour after sentence was passed Doss was on the way to the state prison at McAlester, the authorities fearing an effort would be made to lynch him here.

Mrs. John Bozworth and son, Dr. Ralph Bozworth, of Salisbury Mo., are visiting the former's brother, Dr. Nance and wife.

High School Notes

On account of an accident, Supt. Bishop was unable to attend school Monday. Mrs. Bishop attended his classes.

The High School was given a most interesting talk Wednesday morning by Dr. A. C. Scott of the Oklahoma University. It was thoroughly appreciated by every one.

The Glee Clubs are planning to give an Operetta in the near future.

The Debating Club is preparing for another contest.

The boys and girls basket ball teams are putting in some good practice, preparing for the game Saturday night with Ft. Cobb.

Edwin Rose, a graduate of the Anadarko High school, received the highest honorable mention at the Art Institute in Chicago. This certainly speaks well for Edwin.

Of the entire student body at the Oklahoma University at Norman, 31 percent failed or were conditioned in some subject. Fortunately none of the Anadarko boys were among the failures.

Thursday afternoon, the Adelpian Literary Society rendered a most interesting program. After this both the Adelpian and the Omega separated and elected their officers for the coming semester. The following officers were elected: The Adelpian, Pres., Robt. Fowler, Vice Pres., Ray Pruitt, Sec., Clara Lindley, The Omega, Pres., Thos. Holland, Vice Pres., Russell Felt, Sec., Mary James. The Societies then had several drills in parliamentary practice.

The Sophomore class has recently studied the works and lives of some of the greatest painters during the renaissance in Modern History. They have purchased a copy of "The Sistine Madonna" by Raphael.

The High school pupils would like to see more interest taken by the Patrons in the school work.

Birthday Party Special Service

Chaperoned by Mrs. Dr. Nance a merry crowd invaded the home of Rev. and Mrs. Gassaway at the Agency, on the evening of Feb. 18 the occasion being the birthday of their youngest daughter, Clara. Games, songs, recitations and merry making in general afforded pleasant diversion for all present. Candy and nuts were passed and greatly enjoyed, and after a most pleasant evening the crowd dispersed to their homes.

Those present were: Mr. Fitts and daughters Audrey and Leola, Verna Duncan, Alva Bellamy, Maude Mead, Lauren Packer, Florence Moore, Willard Felt, "Bill" Williams, Neva and Neta Gillette, Glen Meashon, Gertrude Hughes, Vets Gordon Nance, Ada Blankenship, Opal Hunter, Emma Lyon, John Barkholder, Myrtle Sunstine, Louanna Duncan, Marjory Brabant, Eda Leazebby, Allen Woodard, Inez Lacey, Kenneth Ward, Helen Summers.
